"SIR, WHAT IS NIGHT FORCE?"
I'VE BEEN SORTING EVERYTHING THAT WE MOVED FROM YOUR OLD OFFICE TO YOUR NEW ONE HERE AT THE PIT, COLONEL HAWK.
AND THERE WAS ONE BIT OF OLD PAPERWORK THAT LOOKS LIKE IT GOT MISFILED. IT'S COVERED IN REDACTIONS.
BUT ONE PAGE HAD THE WORDS NIGHT FORCE ON IT A FEW TIMES...

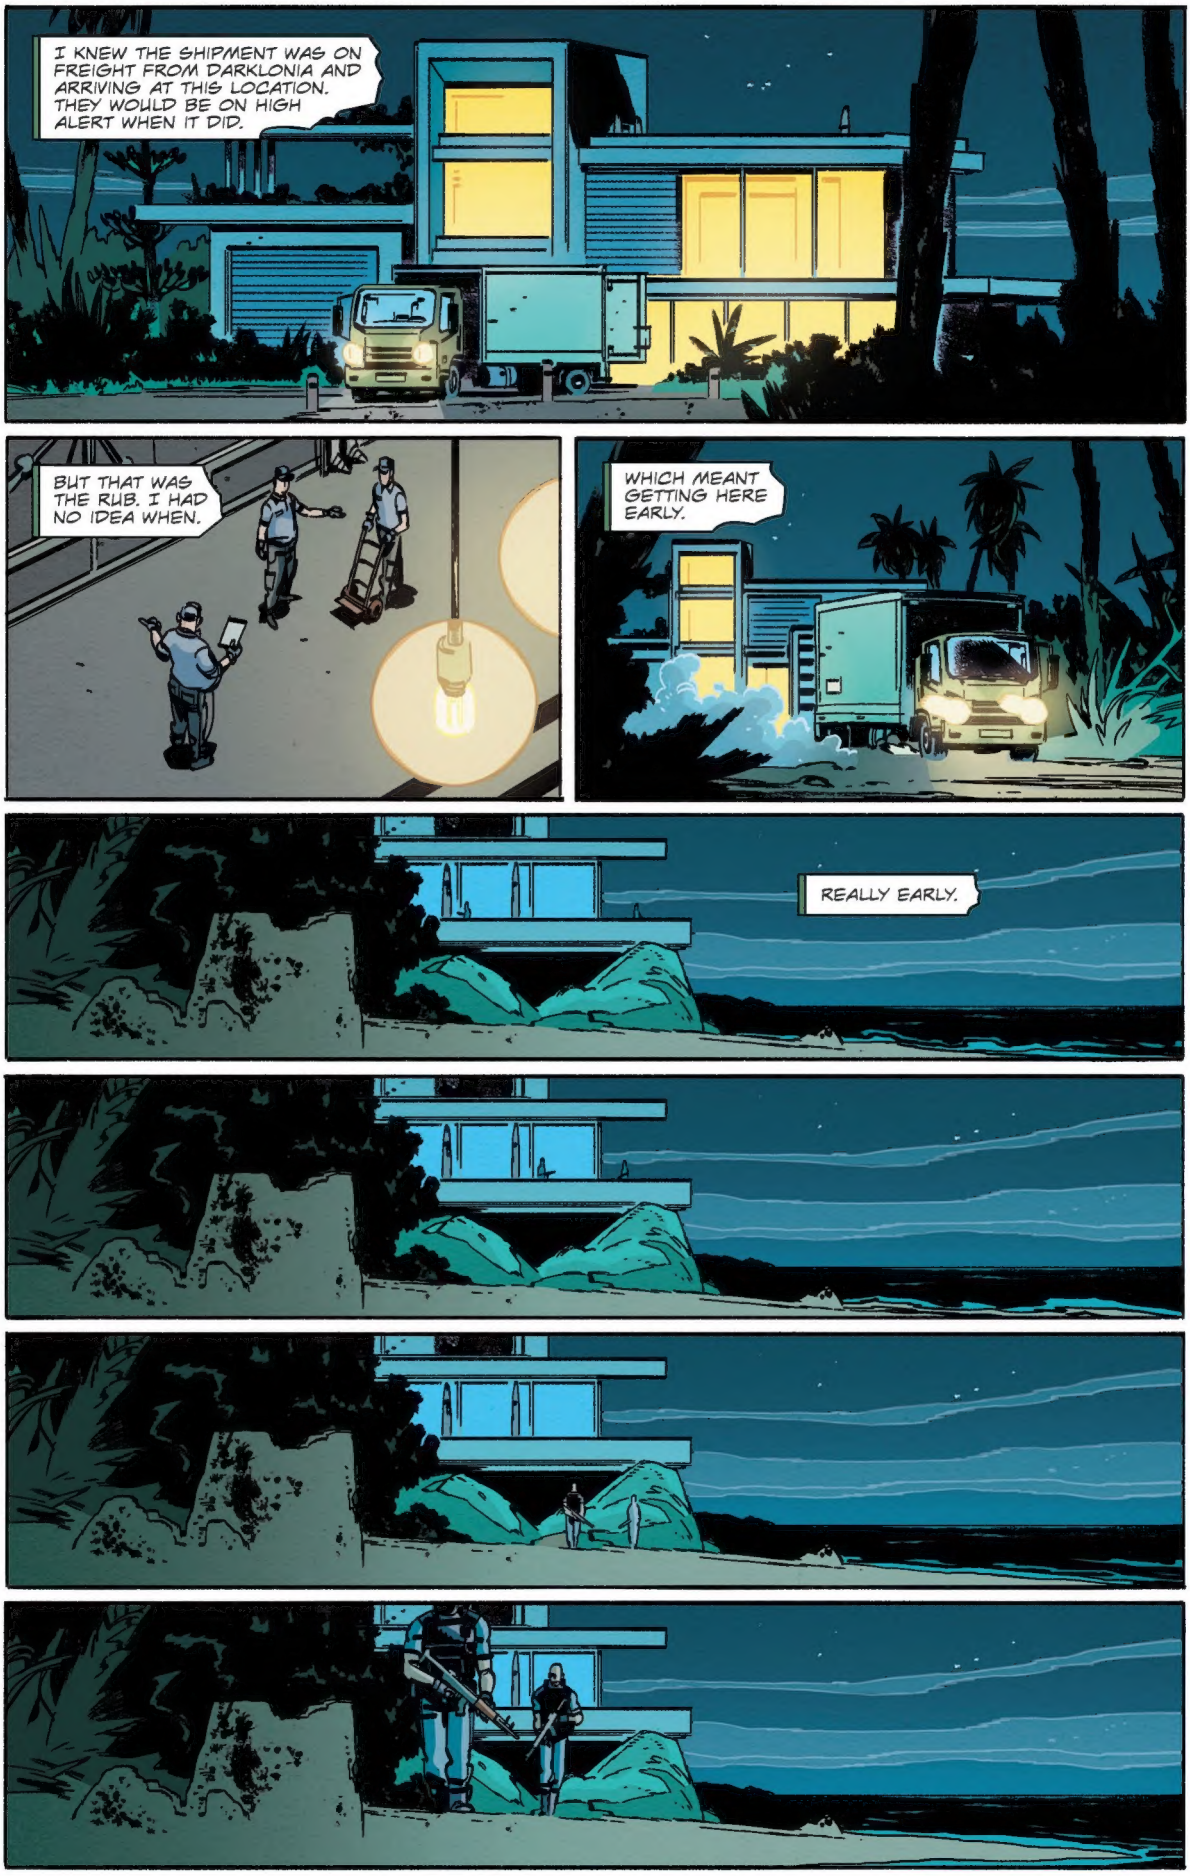
THE HOUSE BELONGS TO VICTOR FOLEY. THE LATEST IN A LONG LINE OF OLD #@$% WITH TOO MUCH MONEY.
INSTEAD OF DONATING MONEY OR HELPING PEOPLE, HE COLLECTS.
I'VE BEEN TASKED WITH RETRIEVING A HOT ITEM THAT RECENTLY CAME INTO HIS POSSESSION.
HIS GUARDS ARE EXEMPLARY. HE DIDN'T GO FOR ANY CHEAP MERCS.
THESE GUYS ARE TOP DOLLAR BADASSES.
LONG SHIFTS. HUNT IN PAIRS. BACK-UP ON ALERT JUST NINETY SECONDS OUT.
SNEAKING UP ON THEM IS NEXT TO IMPOSSIBLE.



I KNEW THE SHIPMENT WAS ON FREIGHT FROM DARKLONIA AND ARRIVING AT THIS LOCATION. THEY WOULD BE ON HIGH ALERT WHEN IT DID.
BUT THAT WAS THE RUB. I HAD NO IDEA WHEN.
WHICH MEANT GETTING HERE EARLY.
REALLY EARLY.

FOLEY COLLECTS OLD WEAPONS FROM DIFFERENT ERAS.
HE WON'T KNOW WHAT HIT HIS HOUSE AND STOLE HIS NEW TOY.
I PREFER THE JUNGLE. HIDING IN THE BUSH. BUT THOSE KINDS OF MISSIONS ARE FEW AND FAR BETWEEN NOW.
THE HIGHER-UPS WANT ME TO SLOW DOWN. BECOME A TRAINER.
BUT MY SKILL SET IS MINE AND MINE ALONE.
AND ONCE YOU START TO TRAIN PEOPLE, YOU'RE TRAINING YOUR REPLACEMENT.

STRAIGHT SHOOTERS

DIRECT ALL CORRESPONDENCE TO: GIJOE@SKYBOUND.COM

EPIC! That's the only word to describe this killer issue...Beach Head! Bludd! Night Force! And the amazing Andrea Milana and Lee Loughridge joining us for an arc... but maybe the most mind-shattering part of this issue?! It's the debut of our new letter column title, STRAIGHT SHOOTERS! (Thanks to reader John Burkhart!). Joining me in the trenches is writer Joshua Williamson!

HELLO! HELL YEAH, BEACH HEAD! And what was that on the last page? What does that mean for Night Force?! This was the first of a few standalone issues that we'll be doing in our run on G.I. JOE. Sometimes they will introduce new characters, or to spotlight a particular story, but I promise you they will never feel like filler. They will always matter to the uber narrative we're telling in G.I. JOE.

And a nice welcome back to Andrea. After the COBRA COMMANDER series, I knew I had to work with him again, so he's taking over for the next arc. Tom will be back for our next epic and wild story arc.

I hope you enjoyed this issue and are curious where we're going with all of this.

Team Joe,

I've been avidly collecting each issue from the Energon Universe and have been enjoying most of them tremendously.

I've been a little lost with the Joe title because even though I've been around since their comic run in the 1980s, I've just never followed any of their appearances on TV, in the movies or in any of their different comic titles. So, I have no useful understanding of these characters outside of what's been on these pages.

As a result, the impact of the apparently big, significant meeting of Duke and Cobra Commander at the end of issue #5 was missed by me. I mean, the big splash page gave me a hint that something else was going on there but it wasn't clear what. And the death of Rock 'n' Roll in issue #1 might as well have been Random Soldier #7.

But that's okay. There's enough other fun stuff going on that I'll keep reading. Hopefully as this title's history builds, it will be less reliant on everything that has come before.

Thanks,
Steve
Memphis, TN

I'm glad you're enjoying the series, and the larger Energon Universe, Steve, and I hope over the course of the book you become really connected to this wonderful cast of characters...so when we kill someone next time,...it'll have a deeper resonance! Heh heh...

Also, my question for you was did you start with G.I. JOE #1, or with the DUKE and COBRA COMMANDER mini-series? Glad you're having fun with it!

Dear Energon Universe,

Thank you, Thank you, THANK YOU!

I've been a Joe fan ever since issue 40. I grew up an 80s kid with the majority of my focus on Joe's and Transformers. The idea of all my favorite toys, except M.A.S.K. lol, (I can't be the only one who sees how perfect they fit into the EU) would have blown my young mind!

Hope you read our FCBD special that came out right before this issue did!

You guys got me back into my lcs every week, almost. Patiently waiting on that 4th title we all want!!! I haven't done that since the Devil's Due take and more importantly I haven't looked this forward to the next issue since I was a child and that's priceless!

CC #1 got my attention but I still was meh about the whole universe. By the end of the Destro run I found myself totally in and got as many back issues and volumes to "catch up" with VR n' TF.

I love everything guys are doing! It's like you've taken all the things we loved about the og comic, and mixed it with the exceptional artwork and stunning covers that I loved about Devil's Due. I enjoy using comics for backgrounds in my toy collection! I really love the full page panels especially the horizontal ones. The last page of G.I. Joe #1 is in my opinion is the best, as good as, if not, better than any cover!!

Tom and Jordie totally nailed that last page. We should have used that for a later cover reprint. Glad you liked it so much.

I just finished reading the entire universe again and I was so impressed on how much stuff I caught the second time around. You guys got me looking for hints and Easter eggs everywhere and I love it. Oh and as a big Dinobot fan I'm going to wait patiently for their intro. There's so many ways they could fit in, maybe in the Joe book???

In short, you all should be very proud because me and apparently everyone else think you rule! I can't wait to see what comes next.

Sincerely,
Scott Dawson

Dude, I would LOVE to get the Dinobots in here. That would be a blast. Those were some of my favs Transformers when I was a kid. Thank you for an awesome letter. Glad you're enjoying it and that Cobra Commander caught your attention.

Dear Skybound G.I. Joe team,

Absolutely loving the G.I. Joe run from Skybound, the little easter eggs such as Energon and nods to Autobots and Decepticons thrown in are great as well as the main story!

I love the different looks that we are seeing some of the characters have in the series, a standout was Ripper in his Cobra uniform in issue #4! If I can make a request, Big Boa is probably my all-time favourite character in the G.I. Joe lore, can we get Big Boa, Croc Master and Raptor in the Energon Universe?

I love those characters and have plans for all of them. I think you'll be happy. It's just going to take some time, as I want to make sure we get them introduced in the best way possible and never rush it.

I personally also love to see Starduster make an appearance! (I'm basically looking at my Classified collection and making a wish list of characters I'd like to see arrive in the Energon Universe!)

That's pretty much what I do, too. I'll sometimes just stand in front of the shelves of Classified figures that I have and see if any cool ideas pop up while I look at the awesome toys.

Keep making fantastic comics!

Lots of love and support from the UK,

Yoooooo Joe!
Mark from London, UK

Thank you for writing in and supporting our series! You have a great list of favs there--I can tell you that you'll see ONE of them soon...but WHO?!

Hi G.I. Joe Team,

I really enjoyed the action and dialogue of issue 5. G.I. JOE is really too big for a single, 20-page monthly comic, but the brevity does keep the story feeling explosive!

Issue 5 also showed us that Destro's troops make Imperial Stormtroopers look like marksmen...(OK, had Destro's men mowed down Duke and his team and ended the series...that would've been bad for the story!)

I enjoyed Destro's understated reaction to the Baronness: after he'd singled her out to torture, something in their eye contact softened Destro, and he changed his approach (only for Duke to distract everybody with Clutch's intervention…the story did leave it a bit vague how Duke guessed that Clutch was not only in the room, but perched inside a H.I.S.S. gun. However, the turn of events made for a better story, so I won't worry about it). Duke has already convinced me that he's some kind of sorcerer (in a good way!).

Duke is a wild man. Ever since he saw Starscream he's been a bit more impulsive and more of a "man of action" than ever before. He takes way more risks than before. We're still telling the story of how he becomes the classic leader we all know and love.

It's been interesting to see the different reactions to Baroness and Destro meeting for the first time. Was it a softening in his eyes? Or did Destro see a challenge?

I also enjoyed Duke and Baroness' repartee. Duke is clearly a sort of fanatic (I think Baroness is, too, but she likes to think of herself as a cold-headed professional).

Tim H.
Colorado Springs

20 pages creates a much faster paced issue, for sure. I have no room for any fat, everything has to keep moving and be short and sweet. I feel like it creates an awesome action and adventure comic.

And that's a wrap, folks! Join us back here next month as Baroness and Cover Girl head to Paris with a few days to kill...and keep the letters coming, we want to hear from you!

-Ben

GIRL'S TRIP! With some special guests. The last few issues have been a lot of action, and we're not letting our foot off the gas just yet, but the next few issues will have a bit more character bits and scenes than we've had recently. You're in for a treat! As always thank you for reading and writing in! YO JOE!
